Heather Cox is a dynamic speaker, business owner, wife, and mother of 5. Her personable, highly engaging and fun style paired with her strategic business acumen make her an ideal choice to educate and entertain entrepreneurs and corporate audiences.

As President and Co-Founder of Certify My Company, Heather teaches entrepreneurs how to strategically choose and attract clients, make more money, save time and resources, and accelerate their success so they have the freedom to do exactly what they want.

Heather highly values relationships and is a matchmaker at heart, giving her an edge and the knowhow to boost her customers' bottom line, company culture, and team morale.

Her clients consistently rave that she simplifies seemingly complex systems and processes that get results quickly.

Heather serves on the national and regional forums for Women's Business Enterprise Council - West as well as the chair of Disability:IN Nevada, and has held leadership roles with the Women Presidents' Educational Organization, Women's Business Enterprise National Council, the Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Nevada, the National Association of Women Business Owners, and the Advisory Board for Super Bowl XLVIII.

When she's not working, Heather enjoys not relaxing with her husband and 5 small, active children. This former acro-gymnast, tightrope walker and juggler knows how to balance her hectic life - with weight lifting, wine tasting, and baking cookies and cheesecakes.

A seasoned traveler and student of the world, Heather earned her BA in Spanish Language from the University of Texas at Austin, and still remembers most if it!
