

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Roger Peterson
President
GlideNet Healthcare

Roger brings decades of experience to GlideNet Healthcare, where he has responsibility for strategic development, sales and operations.

Prior to GlideNet, Roger served as the Chief Executive Officer of America's largest non-profit staffing company, First Step Staffing, focused on putting America's homeless to work. In addition to offices in Atlanta, Philadelphia and Nashville, Roger oversaw the expansion of First Step's efforts to the homeless populations in Los Angeles and San Bernardino Counties in California.

From 2005 to 2018, Roger served in operational and executive leadership positions within Aramark's Domestic Food and Support Service Business. In his final role at Aramark, Roger oversaw a $1.5B business providing food and facilities services to hospitals, schools and businesses throughout the United States. He was an integral part of the team that designed the new organization and the processes necessary for its success. Roger also oversaw Aramark's Veteran's Employee Resource Group, championing the hiring and assimilation of veterans throughout Aramark.

Roger has also served in leadership positions within the International Facility Management Association (IFMA) and the IFMA Foundation. In these roles Roger contributed significantly to the development of the facilities management industry and its practitioners.

Roger is a combat veteran, having served ten years on active duty in the United States Army.
