PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Tina M. Andrews
Founder & Managing Director
Supplier Diversity Experts, LLC

Tina has more than twenty-five years of experience in the Supplier Diversity arena, developing and creating business opportunities for minority, women and diverse-owned businesses and fostering economic development and bring new jobs to the New England region.

She is a former President & CEO of the New England Minority Supplier Development Council, Inc. (NEMSDC), a private non-profit organization that expands business opportunities for minority-owned companies of all sizes by partnering them with Corporations in support of minority business development. Ms. Andrews was responsible for all fund-raising activities, strategic planning, budget management and worked closely with a 16-member Board of Directors.

During her tenure at the NEMSDC, Ms. Andrews Co-Founded the first Small Business Liaison Committee, which connect all City and State Agencies in support of Small, Diverse Businesses together to strategize and identify issues and opportunities for small businesses in New England. This group had a major impact on the success of many diverse firms.

Most recently, she was the Supplier Diversity Manager for the World's largest railcar manufacturer, the China Rolling Railway Corporation [CRRC MA], she wrote, implemented and executed a new Global Supplier Diversity Program. She managed and maintained all supplier diversity and supply chain management efforts for all major projects.

Currently, Ms. Andrews the Founder and Managing Director for Supplier Diversity Experts, LLC the leading consulting firm in support of Corporate Supplier Diversity efforts. She has a team of noted expert consultants in the field that work to assist corporations, state and federal agencies and nonprofit organizations to engage and include diverse businesses into their supply chain. SDE's consultants have a combined experience in the Supplier Diversity field of over 150 years. Ms. Andrews holds a bachelor's degree from Northeastern University.

Diversity Consortium